6
7 Student publications produced as part of the school's curriculum or with the support of student
8 body funds are intended to serve both as vehicles for instruction and student communications.
9 They are operated and substantively financed by the student body and the District.

11 Material appearing in such publications should reflect all areas of student interest, including
12 topics about which there may be controversy and dissent. Controversial issues may be presented
13 provided they are treated in depth and represent a variety of viewpoints. Such materials may not
14 be libelous, obscene, or profane nor may they cause a substantial disruption of the school, invade
15 the privacy rights of others, demean any race, religion, gender, or ethnic group, or advocate the 16 violation of the law. They may not advertise tobacco, liquor, illicit drugs or drug paraphernalia.

18 The Superintendent shall develop guidelines to implement these standards and shall establish 19 procedures for the prompt review of any materials which appear not to comply with the 20 standards.
